

The latest places to stay, play and eat in the Barossa

Best new Barossa accommodation

Once you've worked your way into a food coma, you'll be looking for accommodation for the night (or nights). Happily, Barossa accommodation is steeped in luxury.

Your first option, Le Mas, is a quintessentially French 'petit hotel', offering four elegant rooms – soon to be 10 – in a prime Barossa location. Unwind in the privacy of your stone bath (complete with Hermès products), relax in the heated mineral pool surrounded by lush lawns and vineyards, and indulge yourself with authentic Provençal cuisine in the private dining room setting of The Orangerie.

Indulge yourself with authentic Provençal cuisine at LeMas.
